

Royalton Hartland community Library

Directors Quarterly Report June 2014

Circulation: Total YTD circulation: 13,000 we are down about 300 from last year.

Internet use: This quarter 384

Overdrive downloadable books: “ 123

Freegal downloadable music: “ 106

ZINEO Downloadable magazines: “ 17

Director’s Activities: I attended one Library Director’s meeting and Alms meeting at Nioga, an adult services meeting held at the Medina Library and the Scholastic Book Fair.

May 10th I received the “Key to the Locks” award at the Erie Canal Discovery Center in Lockport.

Meeting room: Monthly book club to discuss books and view the DVD “The Book Thief”
1 Girl Scout Meeting.

Programs: Gretchen Sepick portraying Beatrix Potter 7 attending

Gardening With Native Plants. 25 attending

Library use: Preschool Story Hour. Tutoring of Roy-Hart Students.

Memorial Day book sale & basket raffle.

Patrons looking at Roy-Hart year books and local history material.

Jane Corwin collection box for the Food pantries of WNY

Maggie Woodman collected children’s books towards her Girl Scout Gold Badge Award

Showcase: Charlene Richey displayed her Beatrix Potter collection. Currently we have a Memorial Day Veterans display that we will keep through July 4th.

Staff: Sue Ann Palmer, Ellen Gagne, Alissa Monti

Cheri Geiger – Cleaning, George Tamlin – Volunteer grounds keeper.

Respectfully submitted,

Rose Bernard

Library Director