Addendum: Continuing Paint 'n' Sip programs

February 4th saw the Library's first Paint 'n' Sip program. It was a resounding success, with 24 participants who had filled the program within 3 days of its first signup date.

Here's what some of the attendees said about the program:

"I had so much fun."

"Fun—different and a chance to visit"

"It was fun and interesting to see other people's designs."

"Great involvement for a small community and great representation of local wares (mead/chocolate) and local artists."

"Great introducing other businesses such as Meadworks."

"Very fun, easier than I thought, relaxing."

"It was so much fun!"

When asked whether the presence of alcohol lessened or improved the quality of the program, 20 people said that they believed that it improved the quality of the program.

When asked what they would change about an upcoming Paint 'n' Sip program to make it better, here's what they said:

"Nothing."

"More chocolate!"

"More Paint 'n' Sip nights!"
